Medical.

Hoofland's German Bitters,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable. The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver sympathizing so closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, et .. Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge so eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, as either may be required, new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expressive words, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penna., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
"GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a reliable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, I can certify this from my experience of it.
Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates st.

FROM REV. E. D. PENDALL,
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours, truly,
E. D. PENDALL.

BETTER THAN THEM ALL.

A moderate share of wealth is good
To cheer us on our way,
For it has oftentimes the power
To make December, May;
And so is beauty, so is health,
Or genius at our call;
But a happy, careless, loving heart,
Is better than them all.

A heart that gathers hope and faith
From every springing flower,
That smiles alike at winter storm
And gentle summer shower:
That blesses God for every good,
Or whether great or small;
Oh! a happy, hopeful, loving heart,
Is better than them all.

'Tis well to hold the wand of power,
Or wear an honored name,
And blush to hear the mighty world
Re-echo with our fame:
'Tis well if on our path the smiles
Of Kings and Nobles fall;
But to have a happy, trusting heart,
Is better than them all.

A heart that with th emagic notes
Of music is beguiled;
A heart that loves the pleasant face
Of every little child;
That aideth weakness in distress,
And heareth duty's call;
Oh! such a loving, humant heart,
Is better than them all.

EVENING MEDITATION.

When the hours of day are numbered,
And the voices of the night
Wake the better soul that slumbered,
To a holy, calm delight,
Then the forms of the departed
Enter at the open door—
The beloved, the true-hearted,
Come to visit us once more.

A MOTHER'S INFLUENCE.

THE MANNERS OF THE MOTHER MOLD THE CHILD.

There is no disputing this fact—it shines in the face of every little child. The coarse, bawling, scolding woman will have coarse, vicious, bawling, fighting children. She who cries on every occasion, "I'll box your ears—I'll slap your jaws—I'll break your neck," is known as thoroughly through her children as if her unwomanly manners were openly displayed in the public streets.

These remarks were suggested by the conversation in an omnibus—that great institution for the students of men and manners—between a friend and a schoolmaster. Our teacher was caustic, mirthful, and sharp. His wit flashed like the polished edge of a diamond, and kept the "bus" in a "roar."

The entire community of insiders—and whoever is intimate with these conveyances can form a pretty good idea of our numbers, inclusive of the "one more" so well known to the fraternity—turned their head, eyes, and ears one way, and finally our teacher said:—"I can always tell the mother by the boy.—The urchin who draws back with doubled fist and lunges at his playmate if he looks at him askance, has a very questionable mother.—She may feed him and clothe him, cram him with sweetmeats, coax him with promises, but if she gets mad she fights.

"She will pull him by the jacket; she will him by the hair; she will call him all sorts of wicked names, while passion plays over her red face in lambent flames that curl and writhe out at the corners of her eyes.

"And we never see the courteous little fellow with smooth looks and gentle manners—in whom delicacy does not detract from courage or manliness, but we say that boy's mother is a true lady. Her words and ways are soft, loving, and quiet. If she reproves, her language is "my son"—not "you little wretch—you plague of my life—you torment—you scamp!"

"She hovers before him as a pillar of light before the wandering Israelites, and her beams are reflected in his face. To him the word mother is synonymous with everything pure, sweet, and beautiful. Is he an artist? In after-life, that which with holy radiance shines on his canvas will be the mother's face. Whoever flits across his path with sunny smiles and soft, low voice will bring "mother's image" freshly to his heart. "She is like my mother," will be the highest meed of his praise. Not even when the hair turns silver and the eye grows dim will the majesty of that life and presence desert him.

"But the ruffian mother—alas, that there are such—will form the ruffian character of the man. He in turn will become a merciless tyrant, with a tongue sharper than a two-edged sword, and remembering the brawling and cuffing, seek some meek, gentle victim for the sacrifice, and make her his wife, with the condition that he shall be master. And the master he is for a few sad years, when he wears a widower's weed till he finds a victim number two."

We wonder not that there are so many awkward, ungainly men in society—they have all been trained by women who knew not nor cared for the holy nature of their trust. They had been made bitter to the heart's scorn, and that bitterness will find vent and lodgment somewhere. Strike the infant in anger, and he will, if he can not reach you, vent his passion by beating the door, the chair, or any inanimate thing within reach. Strike him repeatedly, and by the time he wears shoes he will have become a bully, with hands that double for fight as naturally as if especial pains had been taken to teach him that art of boxing.

Mothers, remember that your manners mold the child. Who will not say that mothers ought to be thoroughly educated, whether their sons are or not?

"THAT'S HOW."—After a great snow-storm, a little fellow began to shovel a path through a large snow-bank before his grandmother's door. He had nothing but a small shovel to work with.

"How do you expect to get through that drift?" asked a man, passing along.

"By keeping at it," said the boy, cheerfully; "that's how!"

That is the secret of mastering almost every difficulty under the sun. If a hard task is before you, stick to it. Do not keep thinking how large or how hard it is; but go at it, and little by little it will grow smaller and smaller, until it is done.

SIGNS OF RAIN.—Just before rain, flowers smell stronger and sweeter, because the vapors of the air prevent the scented particles of their perfume from ascending, as they would in a drier atmosphere. Instead of rising above the earth, the odor is disseminated by the moisture. Because the plants are stronger in fragrance just before the fall of rain, we see horses stretch out their necks and sniff the air in a peculiar manner. Animals are more observing than men, and nature speaks to them in a silent manner. They thus are able to prognosticate the coming storm with unerring certainty, while men often stand bewildered and lost in doubt.

A STORY FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS.

"THAT'S THE PLACE!"

There was a queer old gentleman at the Academy on examination day. The trustees seemed to think a great deal of him, and treated him with much respect; but the boys felt rather uneasy, and his sharp, gray eyes looked searchingly at each one of them, and they say that he was listening carefully to their answers.

"I do wonder who that old chap is!" exclaimed Charley Vane, after the exercises were over, and they were preparing to go home. "I declare, he frightened me so, I don't think I could have told the point of the compass, if he had asked me!" Harry Brown laughed. He did not look frightened, he had done his part well that day, and many admiring glances had rested on the boy who was called "the best scholar."

The strange old gentleman was standing with one of the school-officers, in the playground, as Harry passed out with several other boys.

"Harry," said Mr. Raymond, stopping him, "I think this gentleman has left his cane in the hall up stairs, will you look for it?"

"Certainly, sir;" and Harry went quickly up to the school-room again, and, returning with the cane, presented it to the gentleman, with a polite bow.

"That's a fine boy," remarked Mr. Raymond, as Harry passed on toward the gate; "he is one of the boys we are proud of." The old gentleman was following Harry closely with those stern gray eyes.

Just as the boys reached the gate, a young girl from the female department of the school was going out; and, in trying to open it, dropped one of her books. The other boys paid no attention; but Harry stepped forward, held open the gate, and picked up the book, handing it to her with a pleasant remark. At that moment a carriage, containing several ladies, drove up. As they looked at Harry, he recognized them, and raised his cap from his head, with a graceful bow.

The old gentleman saw it all: but when Mr. Raymond said, in a pleasant way, "How few boys have such good manners!" he only replied: "It is all very well; but let me see that boy at home; that's the place! Let me see him with his mother and sisters, and then I can judge of his good manners. If you want to know a boy's true character, see him in his home; that's the place!" The old gentleman brought down his cane with emphasis at these last words; and Mr. Raymond seemed rather disappointed that he did not appreciate more the "model boy" of their school.

But I think the old gentleman was right when he said "that's the place." Suppose we look into Harry Brown's home, and see how he appeared there that same evening.

Harry went into the room where his mother and sisters sat at their sewing. He threw his cap carelessly down upon the table; he did not even say good afternoon, as he took it off. Perhaps he forgot it, or else he did not think it worth while,—only his mother and sisters, you know!

"Well, Harry, did your examination pass off successfully?"

"Oh, yes, first-rate!"

Harry might have told the particulars of the examination, to interest his mother and sisters, as they had been unable to attend it; but he did not seem to think it necessary—how the ladies' work had become scattered about on the different chairs, and it offended Harry's feelings.

"For pity's sake, can't you give a fellow a chair to sit on!"

Sister Ellen began to move her work.—"Here is one," she said; and, as Harry took it, a spool of cotton fell and rolled away. He did not pick it up; but sat down, and opened one of his books. Surely, that did not seem like the boy who had so politely held open the gate and picked up the book for a young miss, half an hour before! But it was only Harry's sister this time; and perhaps he thought it foolish to be polite to her!

When Harry's father came in, and asked him to look in the library for a magazine which had been left there, Harry did not do it with that "certainly, sir," and that bright look which had so pleased Mr. Raymond in the afternoon, and which would have pleased his father still more and helped to make home happy.

At the tea-table Harry did not think of those little acts of politeness which he would not have forgotten had he been taking tea with Mr. Raymond or the strange old gentleman, instead of only at home. He helped himself to bread, without noticing that his sister by his side had none. He said, "Here, take it!" when Ellen did not see that he was holding the butter-plate towards her. And he neglected the little "thank you," and the "please," which are such necessary parts of politeness at all times.

Then, when Harry went to bed, he did not think it worth while to say good-night—though he had been very careful to say a polite "good afternoon" before leaving school that day.

In truth, Harry's good manners were kept for those outside of his own home. And that strange old gentleman knew how many boys had this fault. So, in a few years, when he wanted a book-keeper for his counting house, from among the graduates at the Academy, he would not select one until he had visited several at their homes, and become acquainted with their manners there. Then—to the surprise of all the school—he did not choose Harry Brown. "For," said he, "I dont want any boy about me that can't be polite to his mother and sister!"

Boys, how many of you are like Harry? Some of you are, I know. Then bear in mind the words of the strange old gentleman: "Let me see that boy at home-that's the place!"

Do not think that home is the place where you can throw off all politeness, and be as careless and rough as you please. If there is a place on earth where you should wear your good manners and be polite and kind—"that's the place?" If there are any persons to whom you should give your polite words and kind attentions, those persons are your father, mother and sister. Will you give more attention and respect to those outside, than to the dear ones at home? Will you be praised for good manners by strangers, and cause those at home to think you rude and thoughtless? It will make your homes much more happy and pleasant, if you wear your best manners always there. Do not be ashamed to be polite at home: that is the best place in all the world to you; that is the place where your best friends are; that is the place where your true character will appear: therefore remember to cultivate politeness at home!—N. Y. Observer.

RELIGION is as necessary to reason as reason is to religion; the one can not exist without the other. A reasoning being would lose his reason in attempting to account for the phenomena of nature, had he not a Supreme Being to refer to. If there had been no God, mankind would have been obliged to imagine one.—Washington.

JOHNSON ACQUITTED ON THE ELEVENTH ARTICLE!

TREACHERY AND BRIBERY HAVE DONE THEIR WORK!!

On Saturday last, the Senate voted on the Eleventh Article, and the vote was as follows, the apostate Republicans being in italic:

Guilty.—Messrs. Anthony, Cameron, Cattell, Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Conness, Corbett, Cragin, Drake, Edmunds, Ferry, Frelinghuysen, Harlan, Howard, Howe, Morgan, Morrill of Maine, Morrill of Vermont, Morton, Nye, Patterson of New Hampshire, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Wade, Willey, Williams, Wilson and Yates—35.

Not Guilty.—Bayard, Buckalew, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fessenden, Grimes, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, McCreery, Norton, Patterson of Tennessee, Ross, Saulsbury, Trumbull, Van Winkle and Vickers —15.

The vote was a full one—54. It required 36 votes to convict—being two-thirds of the whole number. Conviction thus failed by one vote.

It is not supposed that more votes can be obtained for any other article; and the general impression is that Impeachment has failed for the present. The Senate sitting as a Court adjourned till Tuesday next, the 26th.

There is little doubt that this result has been secured by bribery and a corrupt arrangement, the details of which are leaking out slowly and are to be investigated by the House.

The men who have gone over to the enemy are those who were suspected from the beginning. Their names will be, in the future, synonyms for baseness, treachery, and shame.

New England furnished FESSENDEN; West Virginia, child of the War, VAN WINKLE; the West supplied the balance: FOWLER of Tennessee, GRIMES of Iowa, HENDERSON of Missouri, Ross of Kansas, and TRUMBULL of Illinois. The excitement all over these betrayed States is without parallel; and these once honored names will live only to be ranked with the detestable and the vile.

On Wednesday of last week, the House passed a bill to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, and Alabama to representation in Congress, by a vote of 103 to 35. The restoration is dependent upon the condition that when the Legislatures of said States respectively shall have duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article 14, upon the following fundamental conditions: That the constitutions of said States shall never be so amended or changed as to disfranchise any voter now entitled by said constitution respectively, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted; and no person shall ever be held to service or labor as a punishment for crime in said States except by public officers, charged with the custody of convicts by the laws thereof.

All the Copperheads, who have been howling for three years over the exclusion of these States from representation, voted against it to a man. Mr. ELDRIDGE of Wisconsin, admitted for himself and his colleagues that he was against the bill because he was opposed to that kind of restoration. He evidently prefers a restoration which will re-establish the old Rebel element in power, make these States "democratic" States, and prepare them to be "traitor" States whenever a good chance occurs.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE has received much censure for his course on Impeachment. No one can doubt, from his rulings, that he was hostile to the movement, and it is charged that he actively interfered to prevent conviction. The motive attributed to him is an old and inveterate hatred of BEN. WADE, and a new and active jealousy of GRANT who "ran off" with the Republican nomination for the Presidency coveted by the Chief Justice. All these stories have produced the effect of modifying the popular judgment of the Chief Justice, the "Democrats" applauding and some going so far as to declare for his nomination as their candidate for the Presidency—an event in our opinion likely to happen about the time the heavens fall.

WENDELL PHILLIPS, who admires few and confides in himself only, and who in the past has been conspicuous for his distrust of GRANT, has definitely abandoned CHASE, and said in a recent speech in New York that he would "rather trust Gen. Grant in the White House without a platform than he would Chief Justice Chase with the best platform that could be adopted."

So that whoever has been hurt by Impeachment, it cannot be said that Mr. CHASE has come out of the furnace unscathed.

ABOUT two weeks ago THADDEUS STEVENS was asked his opinion of the Impeachment trial. His reply was characteristic. He said it was "the meanest trial, before the meanest tribunal, of the meanest man in the world."

It is a vindication of Mr. STEVENS' sagacity that the strongest article of Impeachment, the eleventh, was added by the House after the others were adopted, on his express and persistent demand.—He believed that a sufficient number of Senators would crawl out of the others. He hoped to be able to hold enough on this. He came within one of succeeding.

SENATOR FOWLER of Tennessee, was a rampant impeacher until Impeachment took place. Then he gradually subsided; and on the final vote he voted to acquit! The Tribune intimates that there was a Delilah in the case, or a Judas moneybag. Probably both.

THE four most Radical States are Iowa, Kansas, Tennessee, and Missouri.—Strange that each should have had a betrayer. The people of Missouri will have the first chance to show their just resentment. HENDERSON'S term will expire the next 4th of March.

FESSENDEN has nearly forty relatives in office under JOHNSON. Does that help to explain his vote?

NEW AND IMPORTANT GENERAL LAWS.

We have received a pamphlet of 118 pages, containing what are known as the GENERAL LAWS passed at the last session of our Legislature. The PRIVATE ACTS are not yet printed, and will not be for some months. They will probably exceed one thousand in number.—The General Laws are sixty-nine. Among them are several of great importance.

The Free Railroad Act, though defective, marks an era in our legislation, it being the first application, in our State, of the truly Democratic principle to the formation of railroad organizations.—Existing monopolies were naturally hostile to the innovation, and their tools and agents in and out of the halls of legislation sought to mutilate its features and defeat its objects, but a healthy fear of a jealous and watchful people restrained them, and a tolerably fair bill was the result. Future amendment will, however, be required to render it effective for good.

The railroad interest succeeded in passing an act which we can not but regard as a monstrous outrage upon the travelling public. The effect of it is to compel juries to limit their verdict in case of damage or loss of life of passengers to $3.000 in case of personal injury, and $5.000 in case of death. The law is made to apply to all actions now or hereafter instituted for this purpose. The next step will be, we suppose, to dispense altogether with juries in such cases and refer them to a commission to be appointed by the railroad companies! The lobby are reported as having "done well" last winter. This bill, we take it, was one of the fat pickings. We shall publish the yeas and nays on its passage, when we can get hold of the record.

The Registration Act, the Relief Law, and the Eight Hour Law we have already published.

The fees of County officers, Constables, Justices, Attorneys, &c., were considerably increased, and the Act is very lengthy.

The General Appropriation bill fixes the pay of each law judge, (outside of Philadelphia, Pittsburg, and Harrisburg), at $3.500 for the present year; and that of each associate judge, is fixed at $5 per day for not exceeding fifty employed, and $3 per day for each day in excess of fifty thus employed, but no associate is to receive less than $300 a year. The members fixed their pay for the session at $1.000 each and mileage. The price of the pamphlet laws is fixed at $1 per volume.

The Act of July 18, 1863 and the supplement of April 29, 1864, relative to corporations for mechanical, manufacturing, mining and quarrying purposes, is extended to the county of Cumberland; and also extended to the business of printing and publishing a newspaper and of job printing in connection therewith.

The Act of March 13, 1866 for the payment of gratuities and annuities to the soldiers of the war of 1812 and their widows, is revived, with certain provisos, one of which is that no party possessed of $500 worth of real or personal property is entitled, and another that the application shall be endorsed as meritorious by one of the judges of the Court.

Surplus taxes, levied to pay bounties, shall be paid to the school fund of the proper city, borough, ward or township.

The time for shooting partridges shall commence on the 20th of October, and end on the 20th of December in each year, under a penalty of $25. This act not to apply to Tioga, Potter, Bradford, Sullivan, Venango, Warren, Pike, Wayne, Lehigh, Cambria, Jefferson, Clinton, Carbon, Monroe, Indiana, Clarion, Wyoming, Mercer, Northampton, Centre and Westmoreland counties.

The tax on National Bank shares shall be assessed as last year, by assessors appointed by the Governor, which tax shall be a lien on the stock; but the valuation shall not be above the current value of the stock in the market where the bank is located.

Where side-walks have been constructed in unincorporated towns and villages, or upon any public walk, beasts of burden shall not be led or driven upon them, under a penalty to the driver or leader, of $5, this not to apply to persons leading, riding, or driving any beast of burden over or on any side walk constructed upon or abutting on his own property.

The State Treasurer is directed to refund to those National banks which assumed and paid the tax levied on the shares by the act of February 23, 1866—said tax having been pronounced unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the State.

The provisions of acts of April 24, 1857, relative to insurance companies, are extended to life and accident insurance companies.

The number and pay of officers of the Legislature are fixed by law; and provision made that no greater or other compensation or allowance than that therein provided shall be voted by either house to any officer thereof for services performed at any session. Nor can either house elect additional officers unless hereafter authorized by law, and payment of such, if elected in violation of this act is prohibited. [This will cure the evil of a large excess of officials who were gradually fastened upon the Treasury, some at exorbitant pay.]

The stockholders of any corporation chartered or existing by the laws of this State are authorized to determine, at a meeting called for that purpose, the number of their directors, provided the number be not less than five nor more than fifteen, and that a majority be and remain residents of Pennsylvania during their discharge of these duties.

The several laws regulating the licensing of foreign insurance companies, were revised, and amended in many particulars.

An additional hospital for the insane is to built by the State, to accommodate the insane of the northern counties.—Three Commissioners were appointed to select a farm of not less than 250 acres, to select a physician, architect, &c, the whole cost of the buildings not to exceed $200.000, exclusive of the farm; and $50.000 to be drawn this year. Full report to be made to the next legislature.

The time for presenting and settling military claims against the State, under the act of April 16, 1862 and its supplements has been extended to May 1, 1869; but all presented after June 1, 1868, shall be settled by the auditor general.

The Commissioners having charge of the Soldiers' National Cemetery at Gettysburg, are authorized to transfer the care and entire control of it to the Government of the United States, provided said Government shall take upon itself the management and care of the said Cemetery, and make provision for its maintenance. The residuum funds in the hands of the Commissioners are to be expended in the erection of the dependencies of the proposed Monument in the Cemetery, if that be practicable. [We understand that the work on the Monument is in a state of too great forwardness to allow a change of size.]

All Telegraph Companies, or lessees of lines, are to make regular reports of their business to the auditor general.

ANY seven or more persons, of lawful age, citizens of this State, may associate themselves together to carry on any lawful mechanical, mining, manufacturing, or trading business, and may become a corporation on complying with certain forms therein stated, the stock not to be less than $20.000 nor more than $300.000.

The auditor general and State treasurer are authorized and directed to re-open and re-settle the accounts against the several counties for 1866, 1867 and 1868, by reducing the amount as fixed by the board of revenue commissioners, for said years, fifty per cent. and the State treasurer is directed to credit, upon future payments, any over payments that may have been made by any county during said years. [This is a large power, and may unsettle many accounts supposed to have been finally closed, though it may have been passed to cure special cases of hardship which do not appear on the face of the act.]

All policies of Life Insurance, or annuities upon the life of any person which may hereafter mature, and which have been, or shall be taken out for the benefit of, or bona fide assigned to, the wife or children or any relative dependant upon such person, shall be vested in such wife or children, or other relative, full and clear from all claims of the creditors of such person. [This humane act will tend to stimulate life insurances and, like the Homestead Act, to protect families from spoliation and separation.]

A new Tax Act was passed. The capital stock of all corporations (except Banks, Savings Institutions and Fire Insurance companies licensed under general laws), shall pay annually a tax of one-half mill for each one per cent of dividend made, and if no dividend be made, then three mills upon a valuation of the capital stock made by the secretary and treasurer of the company under oath.—Building Associations, Plank Road or Turnpike Companies not to be liable for tax where dividends are not made by them. This tax to be retained out of the dividend by the treasurer of the company, and paid to the State treasury. Private Bankers and Brokers, and unincorporated Banks and Savings Institutions, &c., to pay three per cent on their annual income, in addition to the previous tax.—Transportation Companies to pay tax on tonnage, as follows: On Products of mines, quarries and clay beds, 2 cents per ton carried; on hewn timber, animal food, live stock, also on the products of the forest, vegetable and other agricultural products, three cents per ton; on all other articles, five cents per ton. And every railroad, canal, and transportation company, shall pay a tax of three-fourths of one per cent, upon the gross receipts of said company. Mining companies to pay four cents for each ton of coal mined. Shareholders in banks, Savings institutions, incorporated under laws of Pennsylvania, to pay one per cent. upon the par value of each share, to be collected by the cashier, and each share to be exempt from all other taxation under the laws of this Commonwealth. Five per cent. is to be deducted by companies paying interest to its bondholders, and paid into the State treasury, but these bonds are not to be assessed and taxed for State purposes in the valuation of personal property returned by county Commissioners to the board of revenue Commissioners. Hereafter companies, except a few specified, are to pay a bonus of one-quarter of one per cent of their capital stock to the State, and of any subsequent increase thereof.

The Commissioners for the revision of the Civil Code, are to have their work completed and printed, by November 10, 1870, and make their final report at the beginning of the session of 1871.

The general laws and special charters governing railroad and telegraph corporations in Pennsylvania, are to be arranged, codified and indexed under the direction of the Attorney General, and presented to the next legislature, showing the privileges and duties of each corporation.

ALL IS NOT LOST!

Impeachment has failed by reason of bribery and treachery. Seven cowardly apostates were obtained, to intervene and save the meanest and worst of Presidents. But the Republican party, in no way cast down by the misfortune, spews out the traitors and brands them, and appeals to the people, the source of all power.—In November next, the Government will be placed in honest hands, and the Republic will be safe.

IMPEACHMENT did some good. It compelled JOHNSON to "keep his hands off Reconstruction" the last three months. As a result most of the Rebel States are so far on the path to restoration that he will now hardly be able to keep them out. When admitted, and local government secured to them, they will be able to take care of the traitors in their midst, and hold fair elections, which will enable the Republicans to carry most of them.—This will ensure GRANT'S election.

INDIGNATION meetings are expressing the wrath of a betrayed people, all over the North. Senator FESSENDEN'S brother participated in one in Bangor, Maine. His old father would attend, if able, for he is humiliated at his son's disgrace.—He recently wrote him word he would rather have his dead body brought home than that he should vote for JOHNSON'S acquittal.

JIM. LANE "dickered" with JOHNSON when he began his betrayal of the Republican party, and lost the confidence and respect of all his friends in Kansas, and blew his brains out. EDMUND G. ROSS, his successor in the Senate, has committed a far more absolute and infamous act of treachery, and in the same direction. Thus, JOHNSONISM has proved the ruin of two Kansas Senators.

LAST February 21st, TRUMBULL and FOWLER voted that the President had not the authority of law to remove Secretary STANTON. May 16, they both voted that he had the authority of law to remove him.

In the meantime, their blind eyes were opened, and they saw.

GRIMES "runs" the Navy Department, and gets all the favors he wants. Did that pre-dispose him to stand by JOHNSON?

THE MONEY WAS RAISED.

The Copperheads may be anxious to know what reason we have for believing that money was raised by JOHNSON'S friends to purchase his acquittal. We quote for their benefit the following article from the New York World of May 4th, which is sufficiently explicit on this point:

"Let the men of wealth in this city, without regard to party, assemble at the "Exchange or in the Cooper Institute, "and subscribe a sufficient sum—ten millions of dollars if need be—TO BUY A "FAVORABLE VERDICT. There are 14 Rebel "leal Senators whose terms of office ex-"pire in 1869. Beyond that time they "are sure of no political position; so "far as they know now, they are certain "of no paying place. Surely, as many "as eight of these men would far rather "be sure of a million each in hand than "to wait for the uncertainty of a $5,000 "office by and by. LET US BUY THEIR "VOTES AT THEIR OWN PRICE."

This "Democratic" programme contemplated the purchase of eight Republican Senators. It is, at least, curious that seven Republican votes were obtained, that that number was sufficient, and that the President is free solely by reason of their votes.

On this subject, the Tribune pithily remarks:

The frankness of the proposition is characteristic of Democratic tactics; it is the way that the Ohio trial and at Albany. The application of cash-in-hand to United States Senators is proof of the confidence and personal knowledge of The World that "every man has his price." At Albany the rates average from $100 a vote for raw Democrats to $10,000 for fishy Republicans; in the City Hall the quotations are nominal, the range being no Republicans to bull the market. At Washington, as applied to Republicans only, The World is willing to "call" them at a million dollars a head. Come, "gentlemen, make your game!"

COLONEL G. LOFLAND, of Cambridge, Ohio, one of the Commissioners of the Gettysburg National Cemetery, informs the Guernsey Times that the controversy about the burial of the Rebel dead at Gettysburg is about to be settled, the Commissioners agreeing to set apart several acres for that purpose near the Union burying ground, though entirely separate.—Baltimore American.

This statement is true of Antietam Cemetery. It is not true of the Gettysburg Cemetery, and never will be.

A LOT of Copperhead politicians of Philadelphia have applied to the Supreme Court of the State for an injunction to restrain the Board of Aldermen of Philadelphia from carrying out the provisions of the registry law recently passed by the legislature, and approved by the Governor. They maintain that the law is unconstitutional. Copperheads, in all the States, hate registry laws and all other protections against such rascality as carried the Juniata Senatorial district last fall and elected SHARSWOOD Supreme Judge. Ignorance in the voter, and ballot-box stuffing by the politicians, are the two grand elements of whatever triumphs the Copperheads have achieved or hope to achieve.

MOST of the recreant Senators voted against conviction because they pretended to believe that STANTON was not included in, and protected by the terms of the Civil Tenure Act.

Yet, the first section declares that it extended to every person holding any civil office to which he has been duly appointed.

AS STANTON is a person, and his office a civil one, no one but a sharp-sighted, hair-splitting, and light-headed technical lawyer could ever pervert the law to mean what its very words forbid. We guess, only those have erred who wanted an excuse to justify treachery.

SCHEMING politicians talk glibly of forming a new political party. The seven recreant Republican Senators are in this, "up to their eyes." Their game is transparent, but will fail. They have betrayed the Republican party; but they cannot ruin it.

We don't wonder at their unwillingness to join the Copperheads, but that is to be their future home. They have made their bed, and must lie in it.

This talk of a "new party" is all bosh. The Republican Party has met apostates before, and put them down. It will not "down at their bidding."

LYMAN TRUMBULL was Lincoln's enemy during his whole Administration, and had Lincoln lived, Illinois would not have re-elected him in the winter of 1866. His defection now is more conspicuous and injurious than ever before; but his constitutional disposition to treachery was always apparent, and should have been fatal to him before this. A few Illinois politicians are responsible for his re-election to the Senate over that gallant soldier and able lawyer, JOHN M. PALMER, and bitterly are they and the country repenting the act.

TWENTYFIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—Hon. HENRY D. FOSTER of Greensburg, who was beaten for Governor by Gov. CURTIN in 1860, will be the Copperhead candidate for Congress.—Hon. JOHN COVODE of Westmoreland is announced for re-nomination by the Republicans; G. W. K. MINOR of Uniontown is also named.

IF ten millions of dollars were raised by the Copperheads of the North to secure JOHNSON'S acquittal, as was recommended by the New York World of May 4th, some persons have handsomely feathered their nests. The people will be very sure to "guess" who they are.

THE Republican National Convention will meet to-day in Chicago. All the States have instructed for Gen. GRANT for President. For Vice President, COLFAX and WADE appear to be the most prominent, between whom the ultimate choice is likely to be made.

As the New York World's advice was manifestly taken, and a purse raised to bribe Senators enough to save JOHNSON from removal, it is understood that the Whiskey ring bled freely, and the recently pardoned counterfeiters helped.

THE Republican State Committee organized last week. GEORGE W. HAMERSLY and J. R. MCAFEE, Esqs., were appointed Secretaries. Resolutions demanding impeachment were passed.

As the Copperheads appear to be pleased at JOHNSON'S acquittal, we suggest that they nominate him as their candidate.—The people would like to "have a clip" at him.

SENATOR Trumbull was paid by the Government $5,000 for arguing in the McArdle case that the act for the government of the rebel States is Constitutional. An interesting question at Washington is, how much is he to get from Johnson for voting that is a not.

EIGHTEEN thousand colored men voted the Copperhead ticket at the recent election in Georgia. On the 7th inst., we see it stated that a large meeting of colored conservatives was held in Savannah. A United States flag was presented to the meeting by white citizens. Speeches were made by white and black men, and great enthusiasm was manifested. This colored Democratic vote may prove to be the "balance of power" in Georgia in future elections when all the Rebels, previously disfranchised, shall vote. It will be curious to see the Copperhead National Convention straddling the question of Suffrage. The N. Y. Journal of Commerce warns the party that its old platform on this subject is too narrow and must be enlarged and takes ground in favor of a qualified negro suffrage, by State action based upon property or education. Pennsylvania "Democracy" can hardly endure even this small innovation, if we may judge of the party's feeling from the tone of its newspaper organs.

GOOD ADVICE.

The Philadelphia Inquirer gives the following very sensible advice on the failure of impeachment:

There is but one course for the people to adopt, which is to bear themselves as steadily in misfortune as they would in success.—When a soldier nobly falls in battle the ranks close up. When the deserter basely seeks the rank of the enemy he is dropped from the rolls; but the true men do not falter. There is a period when every act of treachery will feel the full force of its punishment; and for every one engaged in this most infamous political offence in our history, his time will come.

The N. Y. Tribune philosophizes thus:—So we have tried and not succeeded; but the result is quite other than failure. The Republican party stands forever relieved from all responsibility for Mr. Johnson's future misdeeds. Let him now wrest the command of the army from General Grant—let him wield the military as well as civil power of the Government in the interest of rebellion and aristocracy—let him obstruct to the utmost the return of the Southern States, free and loyal, to the councils of the Republic—the country and the world will hold us wholly blameless. Messrs Chase, Fessenden & Co. have taken the Old Man of the Sea upon their shoulders—we shall see how they bear up under the load! They have nine months ahead of such responsibility as we do not covet—we shall be agreeably disappointed if it does not break them down,

Thanks to infinite mercy, there is an ordeal before us in which a concurrence of two-thirds is not required to ensure a righteous verdict. Let Messrs. Chase, Fessenden and Company take care of their man Johnson, while we organize for and make certain the joyful advent of Grant and victory!

GENERAL NEWS.

P. C. ELLMAKER last week sold at public sale 361 acres of land in Rush township, Schuylkill county, for $130,250.

To an inquiry how one of the bank presidents in this Commonwelth had made his fortune the reply was—"Mainly by economy."

PROPERTY averages $900 to every inhabitant in Connecticut, which makes it in proportion to its population the richest state in the Union. Rhode Island is the next highest on the list, being about $100 less.

THERE is a church in Prussia, octagonal without and circular within, capable of containing one thousand persons. The relievo roof, the ceiling, the Corinthian capitals, are all of paper mache, rendered waterproof by saturation in vitriol, lime water, whey and white of egg.

THEY test the strength of bridges in an extraordinary way in Russia. One was recently erected over the Moskewa river and has just been officially examined. After loading it with weights to the amount of about one hundred tons, all the people who were witnessing the trial were invited to come and stand on the bridge. They did so, and the bridge stood the test, but if it had given way under the enormous pressure the consequence would have been terrible.

IT is now stated that Wm. L. Yancey died from violence. His death occured shortly after his return from an unsuccessful mission abroad in behalf of the Confederacy. He was in his place as a Confederate Senator from Alabama, and in the course of a hot debate on the abstract doctrines of State rights and the divinity of slavery with a Senator from Georgia, he received the lie from his antagonist. Yancey immediately leaned forward to strike, but was caught and violently thrown back over a desk by his opponent, seriously injuring his spine. He was carried away, a vote of secrecy was passed, and in a few weeks he died; it is only lately that the mode of his death has become known.

MASSACRE OF AMERICAN SEAMEN IN CHINA:—By special telegrams from Malta, by way of London and through the Atlantic cable, we have advices from China which report that the United States steamer Shenandoah, Captain Ferbiger, of the Asiatic squadron, had proceeded to Corea to institute complete inquiries as to the fate of the crew and passengers of the American bark General Sherman, who are said to have been massacred there some time since. It is rumored that a few of them are yet alive and held in the territory. Their bodies, dead or alive, are to be sought by the men of the Shenandoah, and Captain Ferbiger's mission promises important results. —New York Herald.

VOTING in Greece is somewhat different from voting in America. The polling places are churches. Thirty ballot boxes are placed on the floor of the church, each of them bearing the name of a candidate. Upon one-half the box, painted white, is written "Yes," and on the other half, painted black, is written "No." A clerk attends the voter, with thirty bullets, and when opposite a box pronounces the name of the candidate and hands the voter a bullet. Passing his arm up a funnel about a foot in length, the voter's hand arrives unseen at a division in the box, and he drops the ball to the right or left, "yes" or "no," as the case may be, and so on throughout the whole thirty. The system is said to insure secrecy and perfect order.

THE colored vote in Georgia did not go all one way. Houston county, which by the registry, showed a colored majority of 2,200, gave Gordon, the Democratic candidate for Governor, 324 majority. Whence the editor of the Macon Telegraph takes courage, and shouts "Glorious old Houston!"

PERSONAL.—Col. W. G. Case of Columbia, President of the Gettysburg Railroad Company, is in London and expects to remain abroad three months.

TAX ABATEMENT.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that tax payers can save five per cent., by paying their Borough and Bounty taxes before July 1st.

MILITARY PICNIC.—A Military Basket Pic Nic, under the auspices of the Franklin Zouaves, Capt. Eicholtz, and the Gettysburg Zouaves, Capt. Norris, will be held in the grove near Grape Vine School House, Butler township, on Saturday, the 30th of May.

PROPERTY SALES.—George E. Bringman, Esq., of Gettysburg, has sold his Forge property to Jacob Reiley of Gettysburg and George E. Smyser of York, for $6,000.

Mr. Frederick Wolf has sold his farm, in Straban township, to Jonas Robert, at $5,-000—about 104 acres.

FAIR.—A Fair will be held in the School House of St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Littlestown, to commence on the last Monday in the month and continue until Saturday evening, for the benefit of said school. A vocal and instrumental concert, for the same purpose, will be given some time during the week, in Myer's Hall.

VALUATION OF BANK STOCK.—Judge Fahs of York, the Assessor appointed by Gov. Geary to assess the Bank stock in this county, for purposes of taxation, has made a valuation of the stock of the Gettysburg National Bank at $60 per share (par value $50,) and of the First National at $100 (par value $100.)

NEW POST OFFICE.—The Post Master General has established a Post Office in Menallen township, to be known as Wenks; and appointed William S. Cart, Esq., Post Master. A recent act of Congress established a new route from York Springs to Wenks, via Idaville—upon which we presume service will soon be put.

MEDICAL.—At the meeting of the Homœopathic Medical State Society, in Harrisburg, on the 12th, we observe that Dr. J. H. Marsden of York Springs was chosen one of the Board of Censors for the ensuing year. Gettysburg was proposed "on account of its historic interest," as the next place of meeting; but Wilkesbarre was finally selected.

SUPREME COURT.—On Monday last, the Supreme Court disposed of the following cases:

Harner vs. Fisher, Adams county. Judgment affirmed.

Cumberland Mutual Protection Insurance Company vs. Douglas et al. [This is the Caledonia Spring case.] Adams county. Judgment affirmed.

WATER COMPANY.—The following officers were elected on Saturday last for the ensuing year:

President—George W. McClellan.
Secretary and Treasurer—Samuel R. Russell.
Directors—George W. McClellan, S. R. Russell, E. B. Buehler, George Swope, H. J. Stahle.

Five per cent. dividend was declared for the business of the last six months.

TOBACCO ANTIDOTE.—Capt. C. G. Miller, of Mountpleasant township, has left with us a box of Dr. Burton's "Tobacco Antidote," which is represented to be an infallible remedy for persons addicted to the use of the weed, and who desire to give it up.—We hear it highly spoken of by gentlemen who have tested its virtues. It is a harmless preparation, and acts as a tonic and restorative. Capt. Miller is the Agent for this county.

SHAMEFUL.—Democracy and Whiskey seem to flourish in Mountpleasant. We are informed that at a recent public sale in that intensely Democratic district, Whiskey was publicly sold and profusely dispensed to the crowd. Drunkenness of course ensued.—Among others, two women, (one married, the other single,) became beastly drunk—one of them shamelessly denuding herself of her clothing in the presence of the gaping crowd, and both so helpless that it became necessary to haul them to their homes in a spring wagon.

IMPROVEMENTS IN BRAGTOWN NEIGHBORHOOD.—A Fairbank's Hay Scale has been erected at Bragtown, which will prove a great convenience to the neighborhood. Adam Hollinger is erecting a fine bank barn, 37 x 46, and expects to finish it in a few weeks. John Hummer is building a large barn. Samuel Harbold is building a fine brick residence on his farm. —Michael Bosser, Esq., is also putting up a frame residence on his farm.—There are several other improvements in the neighborhood, but on the York county side of the line. Samuel Mummert, near East Berlin is building a large Bank barn.

RAILROAD AUDIT.—At the hearing before J. C. Neely, Esq., on Friday last, in the Gettysburg Railroad case, Messrs. North and McConaughy appeared as counsel for Caleb S. Maltby, of New Haven, who holds Bonds of the company to the amount of $112,-000, and claims to take pro-rata share in the distribution of funds in hands of the Sequestrator. R. G. McCreary, Esq., D. Wills and others, counsel of bona-fide bond-holders, objected that the bonds presented by Mr. Maltby were really the property of the Company, having been redeemed from hypothecation by Mr. Case, President of the Company, and could not come in on the fund. After taking some testimony, the audit was adjourned to Tuesday, June 2.

RUNAWAYS.—On Saturday last while Mr. John Brough of East Berlin was repairing fences on his farm, he left his fine four-horse team standing in the road, hitched to a wagon loaded with rails. One of the horses slipped his bridle, and started to run, taking with him the team at full speed.—They were stopped near Hildebrand's tanyard at the Berlin bridge. Two of the horses fell, and one of them was much injured.

As Daniel Smith of Latimore township was taking his horses, on Monday of last week, out to plough, they ran off. After being caught, he undertook to ride one and lead the other home; and when at full speed, both the horses fell upon him and seriously injured him. Mr. Smith served three years in the army, is much respected, and has the deep sympathies of his neighbors.

RAILROAD ITEMS.—We learn that at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Littlestown Railroad, held on the 4th inst., it was determined to extend that road to the State line. Mr. Gitt, in his Report of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad, estimates the cost of this extension, exclusive of the Right of Way, at $38,033.90.

At the annual election held by the stockholders of the Hanover Branch Railroad Company, on Monday of last week, the old officers were elected, as follows; President —Capt. A. W. Eichelberger. Managers—Reuben Young, David Wortz, Henry Wirt, John L. Jenkins, Joseph Dellone and Joseph Althoff. At this meeting the question of subscribing for 400 shares or $20,000 of stock in the Frederick and Pennsylvania Line Railroad, was carried without a dissenting vote.

The afternoon train leaves Hanover at 1.50, and returns at 3.40, corresponding with recent changes on the Northern Central.

PA. COLLEGE.—A special meeting of the Board of Trustees of Pa. College was held on Friday last, to elect a President in room of Rev. Dr. Baugher, deceased. Rev. M. Valentine, D. D., Professor of Homiletics and Church History in the Theological Seminary, was unanimously elected. A committee of the Board waited on Dr. Valentine to urge his acceptance of the position. Although not able to give the Committee a definite answer, he agreed to hold the matter under advisement, but yielded to the request of the Board to discharge the duties of President of the College during the present term, his colleagues in the Seminary Faculty having promptly and courteously made arrangements to relieve him from duties in the Seminary until he shall definitely determine to accept or decline the Presidency of the College. We regard the selection of the Board one eminently "fit to be made." Dr. Valentine is a gentleman of marked ability and one of the most promising divines in the Lutheran Church. His unanimous election by the Board of Trustees is a high tribute to his acknowledged scholarly attainments—courteous christian deportment—and administrative ability. We hope he may see his way clear to accept the position.

The work on the new Preparatory Building and the new Professors' Houses, is progressing. They will be completed by the fall session. The Professors' Houses were ordered to be completed as per original plan, viz: with back-buildings.

The Franklin Professorship is still vacant, but instruction in Greek will be given during the present term by Professors Ferrier and Stoever.

LOCATED.—By his card in to-day's paper, it will be noticed that our young friend, J. H. Lefever, Esq., recently admitted to the Bar, has located in Littlestown, and will attend to all kinds of legal business. Littlestown is a thriving business place, and our friends in that place will find a resident Attorney a great convenience. Mr. Lefever is a young gentleman of fine attainments, sustained a creditable examination at the Bar, and we commend him to the confidence of business men needing legal counsel.

HUBBARD'S COMBINED SELF-RAKING REAPER AND MOWER.—For sale by Henry Thomas & Son. This machine has two driving wheels, hanged joint, and folding bar. The self-raker can be controlled by the driver, and a full sheaf made in all kinds of grain. If desired, the self raker can be adjusted to deliver a sheaf at every revolution of the rakes, without any aid from the driver. We deem it unnecessary to give any further description, but refer all wishing to purchase to those farmers who bought last season. tf

TO BUILDERS.—Col. C. H. Buehler has just received a very large assortment of LUMBER suitable for Building purposes, including Boards, Planks, Flooring, Siding, Laths, Pickets, Shingles, &c.—Also Posts, hewed and sawed, with prime Fencing Boards, white Pine and Hemlock. Builders will do well to give him a call, as his stock is not only large, but his arrangements are such that he can sell at the very lowest cash rates.

THE VALUE OF PURE WINE IN SICKNESS.—The chief difficulty with reliable wines has been their scarcity and exorbitant price, but this has been removed by the introduction of a pure native wine, prepared from the Port grape extensively cultvated by Mr. A. We understand he has submitted his wine to the test of many of our celebrated physicians, and all concur in its purity, medicinal properties, and superiority to the best Port wine. CUMBERLAND.—Carlisle Herald says that during the bombardment of Carlisle by Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, in 1863, a conical shell struck the house of William Bentz, but did not explode. This missile, after having been preserved as a memento for several years, was thrown aside, and ultimately found its way into the coal bin. On Monday last, the shell, without being observed was shoveled into a bucket of coal and thence carried to the cook stove where the contents of the bucket were thrown upon the fire. For more than a quarter of an hour after this Mrs. B. and her daughter were about the stove preparing dinner, and they had just stepped into another room when a most terrific explosion occurred, shaking the house to its foundation. The only real damage done was to the stove, which was blown to pieces.—The Carlisle first National bank has made a dividend of six per cent to stockholders, and carried two per cent. to surplus fund. The Deposit bank has made dividend of four per cent.

Committees were appointed to solicit subscriptions, and another meeting was fixed for the 19th.—A Railroad Convention will be held at Mercersburg on Wednesday, May 20th, whose object is to devise means by which to construct a Railroad from Mount Union by way of Fort Loudon and Mercersburg, to connect with some road east of the latter place.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

The subscriber will offer at Public Sale, on Thursday, the 11th day of June, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on the premises, the following valuable Property, situate in New Oxford, Adams county, Pa., viz:

No. 1, A half Acre of Ground, fronting on the turnpike, with the improvements thereon, for the last 22 years the homestead of the undersigned.

No. 2, One-fourth an Acre, with the improvements thereon, adjoining the former.

No. 3, Lot of Ground, adjoining New Oxford on the east, whereon is erected the building of the New Oxford Institute, and laid out in Building Lots, containing one-fourth of an Acre of ground each, fronting the Turnpike and High street, and extending the town eastward.

No. 4, Five Lots of Ground, containing together 16 Acres, more or less, close to New Oxford, and fronting on the Turnpike leading to York—every lot accessible from the turnpike. The above land is all in a prime state of cultivation, and will be sold entire or in parcels, as may suit purchasers.

The town of New Oxford is a prospering and handsome village, on the line of the Gettysburg and Hanover Railroad, 10 miles from Hanover, proverbially healthy, and a favorite retreat, in the hot season, of citizens of Baltimore, with which city there is communication by railroad twice a day, (Sundays excepted,) in about 3½ hours. Washington is about 5 hours and Philadelphia 6 hours distant.

The COLLEGE BUILDING has a front of 60 feet, depth 34 feet, and 56 feet high, substantially built, and can easily be transformed into an elegant country seat, from the top of which, by reason of its elevated position, there is a fine prospect, in a clear day, of the whole of Adams county, and one-half of York and Carroll counties—there being no surrounding hill high enough to obstruct the view.

For further information address the proprietor, residing in New Oxford. Conditions will be made known on day of sale by
M. D. G. PFEIFFER,
Proprietor.

The Farmer and Housekeeper.

AGRICULTURAL CLIPPINGS.

English farmers believe that "hilling up" potatoes reduces their yield one-fourth. They do not ripen as well.——Soft soap suds will be found a valuable fertilizer for gardens and yards of sandy soil—and almost any other for all that. Suds from bar soap are of less value.——Every farmer ought to know that cut nails heated red hot and dropped in cold water will clinch as well as wrought nails.——Currants to do their best must be freely pruned and heavily mulched.——Beans are a most nutritious food for man or beast. For men and hogs they should be cooked, for sheep fed raw.——Many women are becoming bee-keepers and making money at it. They are not the kind, however, that squeal at the sight of spiders.——Sheep kept with cows are not so apt to be killed by dogs as when alone. The cows fight for them.——Potatoes can be grown much earlier by sprouting them, in a warm bed, before planting. Place them on a layer of manure and cover with sand. Transplant the middle of May.——It is said that the last cup of milk drawn from the cow—"the strippings"—contains sixteen times as much cream as the first cup. We will not vouch for the extract figures but the true ones are large.——It is just as easy to raise a bushel of good apples as a bushel of poor ones. What is a dollar or two of extra preliminary expense in getting good trees?——The Department of Agriculture says that ten million bushels of wheat are wasted in this country annually by bad sowing,—too deep, too shallow, too thick, too thin, uneven.——Clean out the cellars, "about this time" and give them a thorough airing. It is about as safe to live over a gunpowder magazine as the filth and poisonous odors of some cellars. But such stuff doesn't poison your land—use it there.——The apple tree makes a good hedge, but the wilder and poorer the variety the thornier and better for that purpose.——Solon Robinson says "Food should never be given to fowls unless they are hungry enough to go crazy after it." Doubted. Hens will do first rate with corn lying by them all the time.——The best butter factories prefer the dasher churn, in its old-fashioned style, to all others.——For greasing wood axles tallow is the best, for iron axles castor oil. It is a common fault to put on too much at a time but not often enough.——John Johnston says that one load of manure as top dressing is worth two plowed under, on stiff land.——London dairy-men have decided that the most profitable cows are graded short horns. Not that they give more milk, but they make the most beef when past milking.——Multitudes of farm accidents happen because nuts on running gear are not looked after and kept tight. Five minutes attention each day, wrench in hand, is the remedy.——Early hatched chickens make early layers next winter.——Where bees forage on grazing lands all the honey they get is so much sweetness and nutriment taken from the pastruage. It is not certain that the loss is not a serious one to the dairy.——The soil around blacksmith shops, or any that is much impregnated with iron, is fat food for pear trees.——In setting out orchards a register in which every tree is marked and its name put down should be regarded as indispensable. Memory can't be trusted to keep names and varieties until bearing time.——It is a fact susceptible of proof that crops would be greatly increased if the soil could be worked twice as deeply as now. There is no mistake about the great value of deep plowing.——Gardens need rotation—entire change of locality as well as crops. Larger crops with less work and expense is the consequence.—Chicago Advance.

HARROWING IN MANURE. The practice of giving a thorough harrowing to manure, after it has been spread, seems to be unknown to many intelligent farmers. We know of nothing where the same amount of labor accomplishes more useful results. Manure as commonly spread upon the surface when turned under with the plough, remains in the form of a buried stratum, but slightly intermixed with the soil. There are a few men who spread manure without leaving it more or less in lumps, which may be partly or completely covered, and which do very little good in this shape, and often positive harm in seasons of drought. Instead of this practice, go over the whole thoroughly with a sharp harrow, which will pulverize both manure and top soil and mix them together. The plowing which then follows will be easier and more perfectly performed, and there will be a much better intermixture of manure with the earth. An experienced farmer has assured us that, according to his own experiments, the useful effect of fresh manure is at least doubled by such thorough intermixture. In dry seasons it would be still more important. The advantages of spreading manure in autumn, for turning under in spring, are becoming well understood; and a thorough harrowing just before plowing seems to give it the finishing touch. For spring application, as for corn, roots, &c., the previous harrowing should on no account be omitted.—Country Gent.

HAY.—Feed all the hay you can. It is the cheapest feed used on the farm, at the present prices of grain. Farmers can raise more hay than is generally done, if they would take better care of their grass fields and meadows, and never allow the aftermath to be eat off.—If this rule was generally followed, there would be less short crops of hay. Some farmers feed off every green thing, and compel their cattle and sheep to phil up and gnaw off the roots of the grass. A farmer had better buy hay at forty dollars per ton, than to ruin his hay fields by close grazing. The general treatment of grass land in this respect is wrong and expensive.

ALWAYS have on hand, put away in the barn or wagon shed, pieces of hickory or other tough timber. How many times in a year does a farmer want a piece for a pin, single tree or handle, and if not at hand, a whole board or fence rail must be cut, or perhaps half a day lost going to a wagonmaker's shop.

SCOURS IN CALVES, SHEEP AND PIGS.—For scours in calves, pigs and sheep, a correspondent of the Maine Farmer takes a quantity of good oats, boils them one hour, and gives freely of the tea till a cure is effected. From many trials he is satisfied that the remedy is safe and certain.

FARMERS should not expose their sheep to cold rains after being sheared, as they very easily take cold and contract other diseases. Always keep salt and ashes in a box, where they can have access to it.

Cows and other cattle turned out to grass suddenly, are apt to become purged and get the scours. An armful of dry hay, once a day, will serve to benefit them in several respects.

SOAK seed corn in strong tar water and roll in plaster to dry it, if you want the cut-worms and blackbirds to let it alone and save replanting.

CELERY.—Plant out from time to time for early use. Sow seeds now, in rich, moist and well prepared beds, to plant the principal crop in July.

SWEET CORN.—Plant every two weeks for summer use.
